STUDENT LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

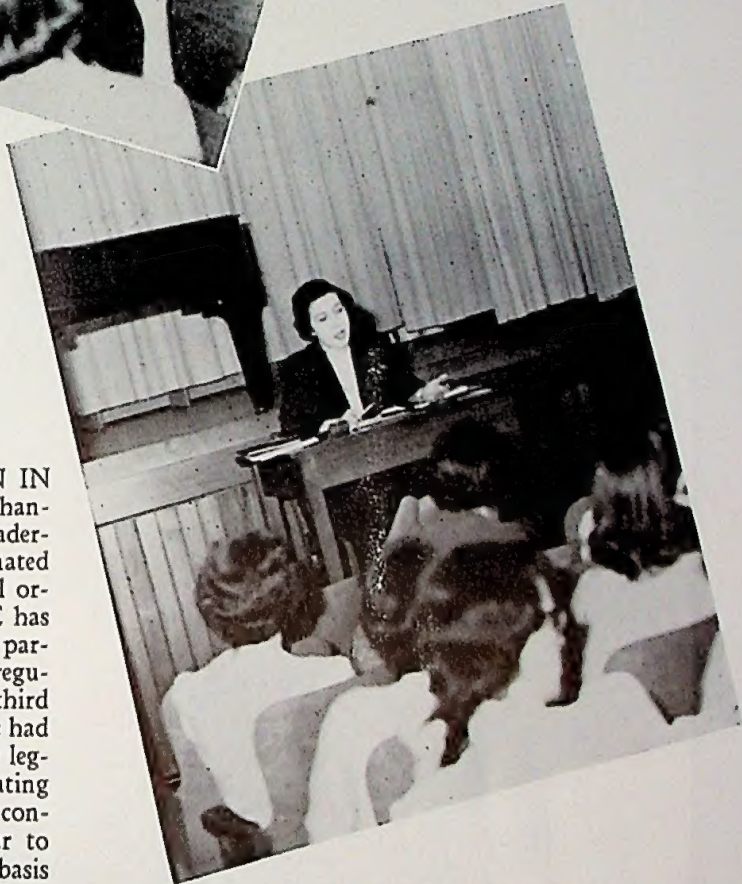

Planning the agenda for the third biennial SLC Congress are Mary Fran Wrenn, Eleanore Rossiter, Kathleen Morrison, and Deirdre Lagen.

Mary Redus, chairman of the Constitution Committee, drives home a point for interested delegates.

STUDENT COOPERATION IN GOVERNMENT at Clarke is channeled through the Student Leadership Council, popularly designated as the "SLC." Most influential organization on campus, the SLC has since 1923 enjoyed a delegated participation in the direction and regulation of student affairs. At the third biennial SLC Congress members had the opportunity to exercise their legislative privileges in coordinating activities and regulating student conduct. Delegates voted this year to accept the honor system as the basis of their student government.

Chairman Eleanore Rossiter sums up the work of the Congress before students and faculty meeting in plenary session.

SODALITY OF OUR LADY

Responsible for directing religious activities of students at Clarke were, left to right, secretary Jane Greteman, treasurer Nancy Dunham (standing), vice-prefect Therese Fox, and prefect Jean Stenson, officers of the college Sodality of Our Lady, oldest organization on the campus. Below, Sodality candidates are received by Father Friedman in impressive ceremony on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

"Won't you join us?" ...
ukes of Dubuque ...
"O Tannenbaum."

Wish I had date ... Boy, was it cold! ...

Now about that Loras-Clarke picnic
for the orphans ... Ummm—chocolate cake with nuts!

What's cookin'? ... family affair ... "Oh, Mary-ann, you played beautifully!"

Stop that squinting.

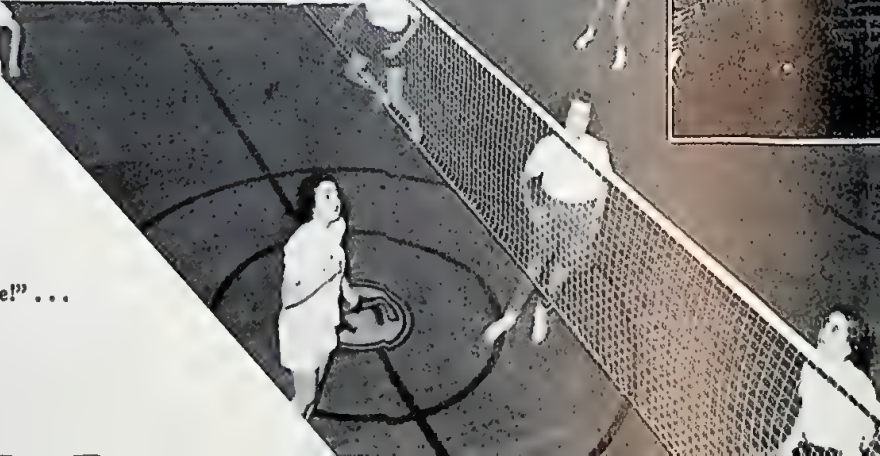

It's easy when you know
how . . . sweet Harts
. . . "But, Sister . . ."

On your mark . . . treed . . .
"Oh happy wedding day."

Decking the halls . . . "Don't you just LOVE banquets?" . . . "On top of ol'
Smokey—"

Now if you're asking me . . . "Get it, Jackie!" . . .
"Got a match?"

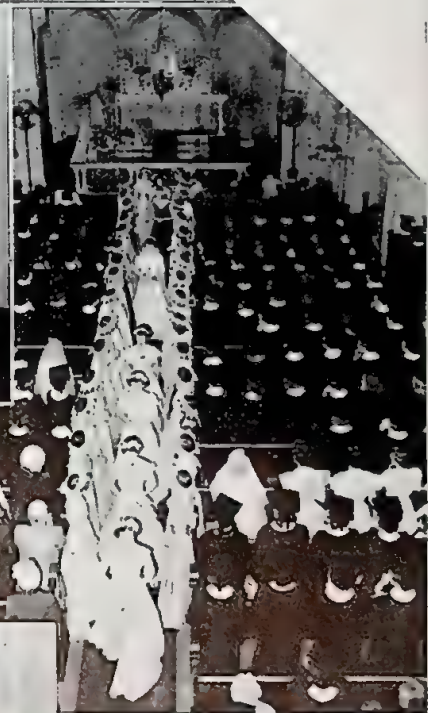

"Of course I do, Morris." . . . as I see history . . . senior swan swim.

They also served . . . Craemer's Folly . . . "Oh, Mary, we crown thee . . ."

Put some more up there . . . why did you do that? . . . "I'm always dreaming of you, Margie."

For Christ the King . . . under the spreading Christmas tree . . . serenade of the belles.

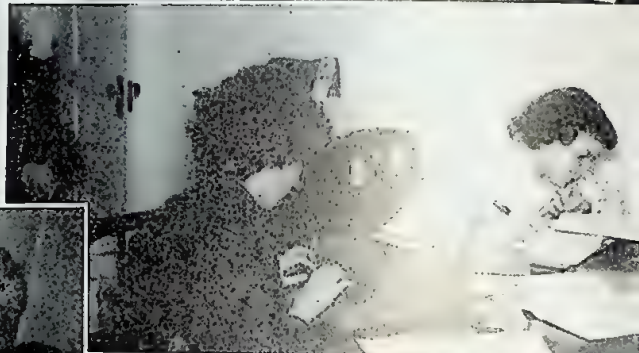

"I'm sure she'd like an orchid, son" . . .

I don't care . . . "Can't I take it out for just half an hour?" . . . rag moppet.

"Don't worry; he'll call again" . . . wherever good friends meet . . . on into the night.

Gcin' on a lion hunt! . . . so that's the way.
Bud would approve.

Wade for us . . . take a bow.

Honor-able event . . . "He loves me; he loves me not" . . . "And you know you have to pass."

Honor system in the bud . . . that beautiful sophomore shrine.

Josephine college . . . must be good.

And we saved $1.35, too!

CLARKE COLLEGE

DUBUQUE, IOWA

Conducted by the Sisters of Charity, B. V. M.

The oldest midwest college for women, Clarke aims to give students an education rooted in Christian principles and designed to equip them to live full and useful lives. Clarke molds resourceful young women, equipped both to give and to receive, who will continue in adult life their education and development, through the exploration of the many avenues of cultural enjoyment opened to them during their college days.
